At Wilmington this ____ day of _____, 2006, the parties having satisfied their obligations under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), and the court having conducted a pretrial scheduling conference pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 and D. Del. LR 16.2(a) and (b).

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Pre-Discovery Disclosures. The parties will exchange by January 15, 2006 the information required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) and D. Del. LR 16.2.

2. Discovery.

(a) Discovery will be needed on the following subjects: liability, validity and damages.

(b) All fact discovery shall be commenced in time to be completed by October 19, 2006.

(1) Document production shall be completed on or before June 23, 2006.

(2) Maximum of 25 interrogatories by each party to any other party.

(3) In the absence of agreement among the parties, contention interrogatories, if filed, shall first be addressed by the party with the burden of proof no later than the date established for the completion of document production, with the responsive answers due within thirty (30) days thereof. The adequacy of all such interrogatory answers shall be judged by the level of detail each party provides; i.e., the more detail a party provides, the more detail a party shall receive.

(4) Maximum of 25 requests for admission by each party to any other party.

(5) In the absence of agreement among the parties or by order of the court, no deposition (other than those noticed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6)) shall be scheduled prior to the completion of document production.

(6) Maximum of 18 fact depositions by plaintiff(s) and 18 by defendants. Each fact deposition limited to a maximum of 7 hours unless extended by agreement of parties.

(3) All Daubert motions shall be filed on or before July 2, 2007.

(d) If willfulness has been asserted and absent agreement among the parties, the defendants must inform plaintiff as to whether they intend to rely on advice of counsel by July 7, 2006. If the decision is to rely on such advice, the scope of discovery shall include the materials provided by defendants to their counsel and whatever other materials related to the issues in dispute that defendants had in their possession at the time the advice was sought.

(e) Supplementations under Rule 26(e) are due September 12, 2006.

(f) Discovery Disputes.

testimony), who has previously been disclosed during discovery and that it intends to call at trial. Within one (1) month of receipt of such fact witness list, each party shall serve a list of each rebuttal fact witness that it intends to call at trial. The parties shall have the right to depose any such fact witnesses who have not previously been deposed in this case. Such deposition shall be held within one (1) month after service of the list of rebuttal fact witnesses and shall be limited to twenty (20) hours per side in the aggregate unless extended by agreement of the parties or upon order of the court upon good cause shown.

This document will not be filed with the court. Subsequent to exchanging such lists, the parties will meet and confer to prepare a Joint Claim Construction Statement to be submitted pursuant to paragraph 6 below.

6. Claim Construction. Lawyers must identify, during the claim construction phase of the case, any claim language that will have a meaning to a person of ordinary skill in the art that differs from the ordinary meaning. Any language not so identified will be construed according to its ordinary meaning. The parties shall agree upon and file the Joint Claim Construction Statement on May 1, 2007, with the claim chart separately docketed.

7. Applications by Motion. Any application to the court shall be by written motion filed with the clerk. The court will not consider applications and requests submitted by letter or in a form other than a motion, absent express approval by the court.
